SENIORS CLASS OF 2024

We want to take a moment to express our sincere congratulations to each of our graduating seniors on this incredible achievement. Graduating from high school is no small feat, and to do so while continuing to pursue your passion for art & dance is truly commendable.

We have had the pleasure of watching all you grow and develop as dancers over the years, and we are constantly impressed by your dedication, hard work, and commitment to your craft. You have poured your hearts and souls into your performances, and it has been an absolute joy to watch you shine on stage. As you move on to the next chapter in your lives, whether it be college, a gap year, or something else entirely, we have no doubt that you will continue to succeed and excel in all that you do. Always remember the lessons you've learned through dance: discipline, focus, perseverance, and above all, the power of self-expression.

We are so proud of each of you, and I wish you all the very best in your future endeavors. Congratulations, graduates!

JOSEPH DINEEN

Joseph Dineen has been dancing since he was 12 years old. He trained at the Allegro Performing Arts Academy and performed with their competitive team, the Allegro Precision Dance Company. Through Allegro Joseph studied tap, ballet, hip-hop, jazz, lyrical, contemporary & tumbling/acro. Through high school Joseph also trained at the Pacific Northwest Ballet through the Dance This... program where he received training in ballet, modern dance & African dance. Through the Dance This... program Joseph performed for audiences at the Paramount Theatre & Moore theatre with various artists including: Bahiya Sayyed-Gaines (Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre) & renowned tap artist, Savion Glover. Joseph attended the University of Washington where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Dance studying performance art & physiology with an emphasis on dance pedagogy & teaching methodology. Through the UW dance program Joseph received the Evelyn H. Green Endowment Scholarship for Artistic Promise which propelled him forward to pursue & enhance his artistry & choreographic skills. His degree in dance allowed him to explore dance with an anatomical awareness, a kinesthetic focus on anatomy & injury prevention & rehabilitation. At the UW, Joseph also performed works by esteemed Seattle choreographers including: Catherine Cabeen, Louis Gervais, Jurg Koch & UW alum ballet choreographer Francisco Gella. Joseph's professional dance credits include: the Stone Dance Collective (under the direction of Eva Stone), Dance Contemporary (under the direction of Tesee George), & the ARC Ballet Company (under the direction of Marie Chong). In 2009, Joseph founded his own non-profit contemporary dance company, AEON Contemporary Dance. AEON's works & performances were his selfproduced, self-directed creations to share his artistry with the Seattle dance community. Currently, Joseph is co-artistic director of Seattle contemporary dance company Artistry In Motion (AIM) under Julius Flores and has built his own brand & training method through #JOSEPHSGEMS. Through his brand he has been teaching his methodic approach of "technical athletic artistry" to dancers & artists across the greater Seattle area. Competitive dance is a passion for this "Jack of all trades". Joseph's choreography for competitive dance studios has won countless regional & national top achievements along with championship titles. He has been a competitive dance judge for MOVE dance productions and is currently a dance judge for Kids Artistic Revue (KAR) & the Rainbow Dance Competition. His choreography recently was featured in a music video for SYML's single entitled Girl. His solo & group choreography has also been well received & recognized earning top achievements at the Dance Awards (TDA) in Las Vegas. Over the passed 20 years, Joseph has taught dance & educated artists/dancers across the greater Seattle area. He currently choreographs & teaches at the Company Space in Pacific, WA. Joseph is also on faculty for the Elite Dance Camp & the eXit Space School of Dance. Through his #JOSEPHSGEMS brand he aspires to share his artistry & knowledge on a national scale while continuing to build & establish his presence as a choreographer, dancer & educator in the Pacific Northwest.

TYLER DUNCAN

Tyler was born and raised in the PNW and began dancing at a young age. Before he began dancing, Tyler trained and performed in musical theater from the age of 6 with Tacoma Children's Theater which brought him to the world of dancing. Tyler has trained in and taught styles such as Ballet, Jazz, Contemporary, Modern, Theater, and Commercial. Tyler has trained in dance with Tacoma City Ballet under direction of Erin Cerigioli and with Allegro Performing Arts Academy. During High-school he split his time with Westlake Dance Center training in commercial-focused styles such as Hip-Hop and Jazz Funk as well as Classical Jazz training with Kirsten Cooper. During his sophomore year he began focusing on more technical work and trained and performed in Ballet Northwest's Company in Olympia, Washington. Tyler has performed in works such as The Nutcracker, Swan Lake, and Vivaldi's Four Seasons. Currently, he lives in Seattle Washington and teaches all over the pacific northwest. Tyler professionally dances for a Seattle based male contemporary company, Artistry in Motion; As well as a professional heel dancing company, Z.Theory, where he performs in Seattle as well as Los Angeles.

ALI GAROUTTE

Ali Garoutte is a dancer, instructor, choreographer, and personal trainer based in Seattle, Washington. She has trained in hip hop, jazz, jazz funk, ballet, contemporary, tap, and heels dance. For the past 5 years she has been training and teaching at Kreativ Mndz Dance Complex where she was a member of PG Fam and KM Elite. Her credits include performances such as WE DAY Seattle. Jete and Carnival in LA, Monday night football halftime show with Ciara, assisting on the 541 Vibe City Tour, and more. She is a passionate student and teacher and loves to continue training to better her craft so that she can provide the best training to students that she can. Along with her passion for dance. Ali is also passionate about fitness. She has been a certified personal trainer through the American Council on Exercise since 2017. Whether it be in fitness or dance, Ali loves helping people achieve their goals and aspirations, while creating a welcoming space where students feel free to express and be themselves.

FUMI HASHIMOTO

Fumi first began dancing since she was 6 years old. At the age of 9 she joined Premiere Dance Center and joined the competition team at the age of 11. She continues to train in tap, jazz, contemporary, ballet, and hip-hop. She has won multiple awards with her teammates and has gotten multiple scholarships. While being apart of the competition team, she joined the Teacher Assistant Training Program at Premiere Dance Center at age 15. She got to experience working with younger dancers and help them improve in different dance styles. That was when she realized that she loved working with kids and helping them achieve their goals as dancers. Fumi is excited to be apart of the Premiere Dance Center faculty and share her passion for dance with the students.

THE DANCE INTENSIVE

AUGUST 5TH-9TH

SAVE THE DATES! PDC's annual in-house training week full of amazing classes and guest faculty is August 5th-9th. Our goal is to bring in instructors who will motivate and inspire the dancers, and share some of their own industry experience. Each year, we are blown away by the impression this week makes on the dancers, leaving them inspired and hungry for more. Easily one of the best weeks of the year!

Dancers will have the opportunity to take jazz, contemporary, hip-hop, tap, and other classes that are not regularly offered on our schedule like modern, improvisation, and musical theatre. The Dance Intensive is open to dancers from all studios ages 6+ for full-day or drop-in rates. Some dance experience is recommended but not required.
